ARE YOU GIVING?

Money
Prayers
New Friends

To prevent a death from famine, to feed a hungry soul with the Bread of Life, your money, your prayers or your friends may be given.

Money buys bread to feed the starving. A little does so much,—$1–$2 saves a little child or an adult, —keeps the breath of life in the body for another month. Money makes possible the gift of the Bread of Life.

Prayer,—best gift of all. "You can do more than pray after you have prayed, but you can not do more than pray until you have prayed." So let your prayers ascend to the Throne of Grace.

And perhaps some friend of yours can do that which you would like to do, but cannot. Give us a friend, either by speaking to the chosen one yourself or sending us the name confidentially. And may God, who seeth in secret, reward you openly.

"AND A LITTLE CHILD SHALL LEAD THEM"

"I sent a box of clothing for Russian Relief (addressed to Col. Sanctuary) by parcel post. Many of those garments had been given me to make over for my children, but I thought if they could be used to keep some one from suffering from the cold that would be better than cutting them up whereby much would be wasted. My seven-year-old son is sending his savings to feed (or rather to keep from starving) two little Russian children for one month. He was saving up to buy a wagon, runs errands, etc., and this represents savings for weeks back. When I read in the famine number to him stories of suffering the tears streamed down his cheeks and he wanted to know if his two dollars would help. Also the pictures on cover touched the children's hearts. I do pray that some one blessed with this world's goods may be touched as I have been. I hope to be able to send a little money in a week or so."

Six Million People Face Starvation in Southern Russia, during the coming winter, unless outside help reaches them.

Food, Clothing, Medicines and Money are all needed. One Dollar a Month will save a child from death; two dollars a month will feed an adult; $500 a month will establish a feeding station for 500 children.

Are you giving for Evangelization Work in Russia?
Thousands are as hungry for the Bread of Life as for food.

What an Opportunity

Feeding the Multitudes; Healing Their Diseases; Preaching the Gospel.

"He that believeth on me, the works that I do he shall do also; and greater works than these shall he do."—John 14:12.

There is a time to sow the seed of the Gospel, just as there is a time to sow grain in the earth. And there is a place as well as a time. The farmer sows where and when he thinks he can garner the largest return—the hundred fold. And so it is with those who would sow the seed of the Gospel. A golden harvest of eternal life may be reaped now in Russia. Words cannot picture the hunger for the Bread of Life any more than words can describe the famine conditions.

As a lost traveler at night seeks for a welcome ray of light, so the lost souls, the perishing, long for a Saviour. The cry of a lost soul ought to bring a swift and sure response. God grant that none may perish who might have been saved through our gifts of prayer, money or friends.

God answers prayer. "The prayer of a righteous man availeth much." The good prayer is for others. The best of all prayers is for the saving of souls, groping in the darkness for the Saviour. Dear Friend, as you seek your rest at the close of day your heart is grateful for blessings and mercies God has given. Surely you thank Him. Otherwise you could hardly expect their continuance. You ask that others, too, may have the blessings and joys that come to you, and that the new day may bring no change unless for the better. Then in silence listen for the cry of your brother out of Christ. Surely you will voice a petition to the Throne of Grace that he may not perish.

Then, the gift of money. How often we plan wonderful things if the day of riches ever comes; the good we would do, the generous gifts we would bestow. But the Master, standing over against the treasury, measured the widow's mite against the gold of the rich man, and blessed while man sneered. Your little, given now with a prayer, will help far more than your much in years to come. God can multiply consecrated gifts.

And your friends. What a gift they would be! A word from you would do what a year of effort on our part may fail to accomplish. We may never reach some who would like to share in the evangelization work in Russia, yet you with little effort could succeed. The September number of THE RUSSIAN HARVEST FIELD entered perhaps 17,000 homes of Friends of Russia, and is bringing many warm letters and good gifts.

If every friend would add but one more, 34,000 people might read of the need, and having read, might lift their voices in prayer, give their mite and add their friends to the growing company.

Whether it be prayer, money or friends or all three is for you to decide. After millions of lives have been saved from death by famine and other millions from death by disease, may the Lord permit us to give the Bread of Life to those who are still looking in our direction. No such vast opportunity may be ours again is this generation. We have fed the multitudes, we have healed their diseases; now let us preach the Gospel.

How true are the words of the Master, "Greater things than these shall ye do." Where He fed five thousand God has permitted us to feed five million hungry, yes starving people. Where He laid His hands on hundreds of sick and healed them, the privilege of healing literally millions of disease-stricken people has been ours.

Did Christ mean that the "greater things" should be simply material, that we should stop short of preaching the Gospel, of ministering to the sick of soul, of giving the Bread of Life and the Water of Life to those hungering and thirsting after righteousness?

How can we come short of the third and greatest privilege of all in following the example of Jesus Christ? Where millions have been fed, where other millions have been healed of disease, surely still other millions must have the Gospel preached.

The disciples of John came to Christ with the question, "Art thou He that should come, or look we for another?" Perhaps they are asking us the same question, "Art thou he that should come to minister to those who sit in dark places, the lost sheep, or must we still look beyond you and wait till another generation comes?"

Christ answered John's question by deeds that proved Him to be the One who should come. How significant the last words of the Master in the message of assurance He sent to John, "and the poor have the Gospel preached to them."

If we are true disciples, following the Master, we must heed His call and "go into all the world and preach the Gospel." Only then will the prophetic promise be fully ours, "Greater things than these shall ye do."

What an opportunity, and what a privilege!

Relief Still Needed.

Wireless reports coming from Europe in recent days confirm the statements made by Pastor O. R. Palmer regarding famine conditions in Russia. In the last issue of THE RUSSIAN HARVEST FIELD Mr. Palmer told our readers that the need for relief work in Russia had by no means become a thing of the past. Now his statements are being confirmed by various persons in Europe familiar with conditions of the harvest and the needs of the people, the cattle and for fall and spring sowing.

While there is actually in all of Russia a harvest sufficient to feed the people of Russia, there are districts which will receive no portion of the grain raised this year. The government has to provide for railroad and other workers, the army, schools, etc., and does so by a tax on all grain raised. When it is remembered that this grain is all in the hands of individual peasants, and that after paying their tax they will be likely to dispose of the grain to purchase implements, clothing and food supplies which they sorely need, it will be seen that the Russian harvest is by no means wholly available.

Interior transportation facilities would also have much to do with the distribution of the harvest, some sections being beyond the reach of railroad delivery. And, too, the bitter famine experiences of these same farmers may lead them to secret a portion of the harvest to insure against a repetition of the harrowing experiences which many of them passed through during the winter of 1921-22.

MR. HENRY L. HELLYER

DIRECTOR OF THE CHRISTIAN TESTIMONY TO JEWS AND ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN RELIEF MISSION.

Mr. Hellyer has just returned from a three months' visit to the famine district in Southern Russia and has a heart-breaking message to tell of conditions he found there. Speaking dates may be arranged for your church or missionary society by addressing Mr. Henry L. Hellyer, Haddon Heights, N. J.

"Suffer the little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not; for of such is the Kingdom of God." Mark 10:14.

"The hungry children whom I found dying. They are blessing how the Lord, and thinking about the aid they got from the foreign brethren."—Rafael Rosenberg.

"In Loving Memory"

Rafael Rosenberg, Seeking the Little Children in Southern Russia.

The hearts of Christian people the world over were touched by the story of the martyrdom of Regina Rosenberg, a Hebrew Christian girl in SOUTHEAST UKRANIA, Russia, who was beheaded while on her knees praying and pleading that the lives of other pogram victims might be spared.

On his return from Russia recently Mr. Henry L. Hellyer, Associate Director of the American Christian Relief Mission, brought with him a picture of Regina Rosenburg, which we have reproduced here. The spirit of this Christian Martyr still lives in the life and work of her brother, Rafael Rosenberg, whose picture adorns the front cover of this issue of THE RUSSIAN HARVEST FIELD.

This young Christian disciple now has for his work the gathering in of refugee children from the streets and ministering to their wants of food, clothing and shelter under supervision of the government authorities. Far better than we can describe this ministry it is pictured for us in the two accompanying photographs.

The small group have just been gathered together so the camera can bring you its own story of the suffering from famine through which many poor children are passing. And these are the children to whom Rafael Rosenberg is ministering.

The larger group, with this good Samaritan in the centre and other workers here and there, tells better than words the kind of treatment the children are receiving. The pinched, drawn look is vanishing from the faces, and here and there one almost sees a smile.

Plans are now being made to send Rafael Rosenberg to the Bible School of Pastor W. L. Jack, in Weringerode, Germany, where promising Russian and Hebrew Christian young men are being prepared by a year of intensive training for Missionary Service among their own people in Russia.

Perhaps the Lord desires a gift from you to aid in supporting Rafael Rosenberg or some other consecrated young Christian in the Bible School of Weringerode. Out of this school will come many preachers of the true Gospel.

"They are not known in the streets; their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered; it is become like a stick."—Lam. 4:8.

"To the Dear Foreign Brethren.

"A remembrance of the famine sufferers in this world. May the Lord help them, and also my dear brethren."—Rafael Rosenberg.

Rescue Missions Needed

Plans of the American Christian Relief Mission for Winter Service in Russia.

The establishment of Rescue Mission homes in some of the cities in Ukrania is one of the most commendable plans of the officers of the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN RELIEF MISSION and its underlying societies, the RUSSIA EVANGELIZATION SOCIETY and the CHRISTIAN TESTIMONY TO THE JEWS. Arrangements will soon be completed for the opening of quarters in the cities of Odessa, Cherson and Nicoliev, each mission to be maintained on the lines of the winter work of the Salvation Army.

"For I was an hungered and ye gave me meat . . . . naked and ye clothed me."—John 25:35-36.

During the coming winter groups of workers will go out from these mission centers to seek out and care for the outcasts, the sick and the suffering, not only in the city streets, but also in homes in the poorer quarters of each city. Food, clothing, medicines and shelter will be provided for these poor wanderers for whom nobody cares, and for the poor in their homes.

Thousands of these poor sufferers died last winter, perishing from hunger and sickness, their half-clad, undernourished bodies being unable to stand the snow and freezing cold of Russia. It is hoped the Christian people of America will aid in this work to such an extent that hundreds of lives will be saved this coming winter.

While a beginning will be made first of all in the three cities named, rescue homes will be opened in other cities as fast as money is available for this work. In many cities this work will not be done at all, unless carried on by the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN RELIEF MISSION. Gifts may be made especially for this Rescue Mission work, and will be augmented as far as possible out of the general relief fund of the Mission.

"Slack not thy hand from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us." Thus did the men of Gibeon cry out to Joshua over two thousand years ago, and so to-day our brethren in Ukrania. Let the response to their cry be no less swift than that of Joshua, and may the Lord bless the going with success, even as He blessed Joshua's mission to Gibeon.

Gorky's Tribute.

HUMAN SUFFERING MET BY SELF-SACRIFICE AND SPIRITUAL SUCCOR

Many messages of gratitude have been received by those responsible for the distribution of the millions of dollars worth of famine relief to the Russian people. Few perhaps are written in such significant words as those here quoted, from the pen of Maxim Gorky:—

"In the past year you have saved from death 3,500,000 children, 5,500,000 adults, 15,000 students and now you have added 200 or more Russian learned professors.

"I am informed that this charity cost America $59,000,000—figures which are sufficiently eloquent.

"In all history of human suffering I know nothing more trying to souls of men than the events through which the Russian people are passing, and in history of practical humanitarianism I know of no accomplishment which in terms of magnitude and generosity can be compared to the relief you have actually accomplished.

"It seems to me very important that such great generosity has developed during these past years of universal cruelty, cruelty which is ruining Europe, following as it does a terrible war which shook the foundations of European culture. Not only have you given physical help, which is so valuable, but spiritual succor has also been given to the minds of mankind which are tormented by the events of past years, and which are sick due to cruelty and hate.

"The generosity of the American people resuscitates the dream of fraternity among people at a time when humanity greatly needs charity and compassion.

"Your help will be inscribed in history as a unique and gigantic accomplishment worthy of the greatest glory, and will long remain in the memory of millions of the Russian children you have saved from death. I believe that the recollection of American self-sacrifice in saving the children will make these same children better and more generous men and women.

The dream of fraternity, the charity and compassion are well chosen words. But Gorky gives credit also to the "spiritual succor." God grant that "the Word of the Lord may have free course, and may be glorified."

Breaking the Market.

AMERICA DELIVERED A MILLION QUININE TABLETS

In Rostov on the Don, "a hotbed of malaria," quinine sold last summer at 100,000 rubles for a single five-grain tablet. The American Relief Administration "broke the market" for this particular malaria antidote by delivery of almost a million quinine tablets, and there is more to come. The vast quantities of this and other drugs purchased from Red Cross contributions, and also the surplus stocks of the U. S. Army, are distributed through free dispensaries and through hospitals and by the public health authorities without charge.

On the principal street in Rostov there is a small office where every day people can be seen lined up outside the door awaiting their turn to be inoculated. There is a constant stream of applicants who see the necessity for this if they are to become immune against the diseases, and the inoculation is made without any charge. Cholera, typhoid and the two types of para-typhoid are disappearing.

Thus, "without money and without price" sickness and disease are vanishing from Russia. And food by thousands of tons was transported across the seas and overland to feed starving millions, yet without cost to those who were too poor to pay. Now let American Christians send the Gospel, and thus may America be thrice blessed of God.

In September issue of THE RUSSIAN HARVEST FIELD an appeal was made for gifts to save the lives of the famine stricken people in Ukrania. Responses to that appeal are already coming in, and much prayer is being offered that a great work may be done for the poor sufferers, especially for those of the household of faith and through them to minister to others in equal want.

It is with a sense of gratitude to God that we announce that no deduction will be made from gifts for relief received by the RUSSIA EVANGELIZATION SOCIETY or by its Treasurer, Col. E. N. Sanctuary. The expenses of making the appeal to the American people, and all office and other expenses, are being cared for from other special funds, and so every dollar given through this channel to the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN RELIEF MISSION for relief work in Ukrania goes entirely to the field, doing a full dollar's worth of work in saving lives.

Have You Prayed?

If you have not yet given of your bountiful supply to those who have literally nothing, may we urge you to make this a matter of prayer. Ask God what He would have you do about this opportunity to minister in Christ's name to the Christian people in Southern Russia. Remember the words of the Master:—"I was an hungered."

Bible Depot Needed.

Rev. Paul L. Mishkoff, our Missionary in Bulgaria (Philippolis District), is very anxious to open a Bible depot, where those interested in the Word may find at low prices Bibles, Testaments and Gospels, as well as other religious literature which has been found acceptable to those who stand for sound doctrine and the pure Gospel of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Pray over this matter, and if the Lord puts it in your heart to assist in this work we shall be glad to receive your gifts for the purpose.

"What Saith the Scriptures?"

"Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver.

"And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work.

"For the ministration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;

"Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men."—2 Cor. 9:7, 8, 12, 13.

Missionary News.

Plans Outlined for the Winter's Work

Our readers have grown familiar with the faces of Brothers Centz, Dobrinin and Mishkoff, and have followed with considerable interest their movements during the summer and fall. Brother Centz, who has been in Russia for nearly three months, is at present resting with his famly in Germany. He plans to re-enter Russia shortly to carry in a large amount of additional relief money and material. He will also negotiate, if the Lord is willing, an arrangement with a very well-known and most acceptable man inside of Ukrania to take over entire control of the famine relief work of the American Christian Relief Mission in the Ukraine. This man is acceptable to the Government, the Baptist and Evangelical Christian groups and the Hebrew Christians as well, and has already given valuable service in a large way under another organization.

When Brother Centz left America only the beginning of his important work had been planned for. It was known definitely that his first service would be to act as guide and interpreter for Brothers Palmer and Hellyer during their visitation of the Christian organizations inside of Russia. The letters published from both Baptist and Evangelical Councils in September Russian Harvest Field show how the Lord blessed that service, and out of it has come the organization for relief work in aid of thousands of Christian brethren, "those of the household of faith."

As Brother Centz returns to the Christian congregations in Ukrania, he will carry with him a comforting response to the appeals for help, and the good news that American Christians will stand by in the hour of trial. Further plans for Brother Centz will be announced as soon as his present relief mission is completed.

In another place some of the work of Brother Dobrinin and Brother Mishkoff is described. Each man is located so that his work is carried on only in a single country and must pay his traveling expenses out of the comparatively small salary he receives. It may commend these two splendid workers to our readers still more to know that each publishes out of his own pocket a missionary paper in the native language for distribution among those to whom they preach. Thus the printed page remains to teach after the missionary has passed on to a new field.

We commend to our readers, Friends of Russia, the appeals of these men who are on the field and know conditions. The great hunger for the Bread of Life is so apparent that the cry for more help is becoming emphatic and insistent. The harvest must be reaped now, and not deserted to the emissaries of satan. Make this a matter of prayer, much prayer!

The Word of the Lord.

The way is now open for the shipment into Russia of Bibles, Testaments and Gospels, through an arrangement made by Pastor Jack, of the Bible School in Wernigerode. Plans are being made for large shipments from all available sources to meet the great need. At Warsaw $1100 worth of Bibles are now ready; eleven large cases worth $800 to $1000 are available in another section; Pastor Jack has a large supply of his own and $900 cash has already been placed in his hands for the purchase of more copies of the Scripture.

In addition, the Russia Evangelization Society has just sent over $1500 out of its Scripture Fund, and plans at once to send an additional $1500 for this purpose. The soil is already prepared, and we know of no better way to sow the seed of the Blessed Gospel than by giving out copies of the Word. Isaiah 55:11.

Let it not be said in our day and generation that men sought diligently for the Word of God and found it not. Other gifts should rapidly follow the good amount now going to the field—100 per cent. is forwarded; no deductions.

Helsingfors to Petrograd

Missionary Dobrinin's Journeying Among the Largest Russian Colonies in Finland.

Finland, Helsingfors, 2 Linja 25-5.
Sept. 20, 1922.

To the Executive Committee, "Interbiblo," New York.

Dear brethren in the Lord:—

I have only just returned from a missionary journey into Eastern Finland, 400 kilometers from Helsingfors.

As you know from many of my previous letters, I am not suffering from lack of optimism, and I say that, in our words here, the blessing of the Lord has come upon me abundantly. The Lord has given much joy to make up for the previous times. Glory to Him.

Here is the cycle of meetings in the name of the Lord, which has just been concluded:

Sept. 11. Viborg, a city of the province. At least fifty men were in the audience. My theme was "That I may see"—Bartimaeus. I also invited the Lutheran pastor, Wagner, to speak. Though he is of another denomination, still he is our friend. The listeners were very attentive. There was splendid congregational singing. I very much ask you to express the gratitude of our Society to A. Wagner, Viborg, for his friendly co-operation with us. If you will send this communication to me, I will give it to him. Such a letter would be a great encouragement to him.

Sept. 12, Perkjarvi. About fifteen men were in the audience. The fullness of the Spirit was with us. My subject was "The treasure hid in the field." Several people made fervent prayers.

Sept. 13, Kellomaki. 15 men. My subject was, "My peace give I unto you." An unusual meeting. The people prayed earnestly to God.

Sept. 14, Mustamaki. About fifteen men. My subject was, "The house on the rock and on the sand." After the meeting we had an earnest talk. There are not many Orthodoxes here. In the summer there was a great agitation. and they would not come to hear me, saying that I was a heretic. Nevertheless, some came. The wife of one professor asks questions of a very polemic character. All will work out satisfactorily for the general good. At the place where I stand preaching there are great Russian ikons, and at the time of the meeting the lamps are lighted. I am trying to be loyal to the utmost of my ability. But I have plainly revealed to all that I shall go only by the straight line of the Gospel. They have threatened that they will not come to the meetings, because our doctrine is so different from the Orthodox one. I reply that the crowds do not interest me, but that I have in view the individual needs of souls thirsting for salvation. All the same the people, though frightened by the Orthodox threats, do not forsake our meetings. Some left us, but they have returned.

Sept. 14, On this day there was still another meeting in Perkjarvi. We had a Bible hour. Ten men present. A blessed evening.

Sept. 15, Terioki. About twenty-five men. All day there was a heavy rain, the village was filled with mud, but a large proportion of the people came to the meeting. My theme was, "Where is thy heart?" A very helpful meeting.

Sept. 16, Viborg. Again in this week we had a Bible hour. About 15 men. The believers and Orthodoxes were mixed. The last were noticeably interested. On the Bible evenings I answer questions and call out the activity of the people in every way possible.

Sept. 17, Helsingfors. The first called meeting. At least thirty men came. The believers who live there did not think it possible to get more people to attend the meetings, the soil here is so depraved and corrupt. All the same the Lord sent us new people. My theme was: "The evidences and growth of faith." The Lord was with us.

Helsingfors. The two previous Sundays and the last Sunday I have had a meeting of believers at my house. In the evening we always call a meeting. Every time ten to fifteen persons gather. At these meetings we have felt the nearness of the Lord.

I am sending the September issue of our "Awakening," from which you will see how I have divided my time between Helsingfors and eastern Finland. I clearly see God's will in my remaining in Helsingfors. All the regular work is going forward smoothly. By such a combination of meetings all Finland, wherever the larger Russian colonies are, will be served.

Pray for me to the Lord, dear brethren, that the program which I have arranged may be carried out in full this coming winter. Much spiritual strength is necessary, as well as health.

Up to this time the Lord has helped in everything.

In the east of Finland I am holding several meetings, besides those on the program, for my loving and beloved brother from Petrograd, N. Nustrem. But, to my grief, he is growing old, and consequently cannot be very active from now on.

At this time I shall again journey into the eastern part of Finland, and, with the help of the Almighty, will hold meetings there everywhere.

May the Lord bless you abundantly in all things. Pray for us.

The Russian people has now reached a severe crisis in their spiritual life. You know of the past reformations in Russia. There has been a great deal of politics in this, of course, but there has also been the pure spark of spiritual life. The Russian people is on the way spiritually now as never before.

Urge it home to your contributors that "we must strike while the iron is hot." We must turn a great stream of the Gospel in among the Russian people. Now is the accepted time for this. Every moment of the preaching of the Gospel now is worth a thousand times as much preaching in the future, when the progress of the Gospel will again be blocked in some way, but God grant that it may not be so for those who are nearest the Gospel now.

Entirely yours in the Lord, your least fellow-worker, A. Dobrinin.

Kaleidoscope of the Russian Missionary Field in Finland.

1. Before me is one of the ablest Russian priests. In him are collected everything contemporary: nationalism, anarchy, search for God, rationalism, in hopeless exile—extreme orthodoxy.

"Let us read the Gospel," I say to the priest.—"It is not necessary," he replies hastily. "Mother Orthodox Church gives me all the gifts of grace."

"Are you saved by the grace of Christ?" I continue.—"What?" he exclaims astonished, then speaks on excitedly: "Accursed am I and a child of hell because of my sins." . . . . . .

"Where, then, are you leading your flock?" I ask him sadly. . . . . .

2. "I had something heavy on my heart when I entered the meeting, but now I feel so light, so light," says a lady upon leaving our meeting.

3. Timidly there comes into my house a Greek Orthodox soul, who has hardly ever attended our meetings.

"My heart aches with suffering; pray for me," she implores. We go down on our knees—I pray—she prays in her own words, shaking with sobs, then departs happy. . . . . .

Carry forward to your benefactors that on leaving your missionary stations people leave behind them their tears and carry away happiness in their hearts.

Helsingfors, A. Dobrinin.

The People in Bulgaria, Who Need You

Bulgaria, Philippopolis
July 24, 1922.

Prominent among the Christian nationalities in the Balkan Peninsula, is the Bulgarian people, forming the majority of the population in the Principality of Bulgaria proper and its neighboring province, Macedonia. Its past history and its present growth are in many ways interesting.

In 1878 modern Bulgaria was born, a country about the size of Indiana, or of Scotland and Wales together. It has now a population of about 5,000,000 in addition to about 1,250,000 Bulgarians in Macedonia.

Bulgaria is alert and has made very remarkable progress during the forty years since her liberation. In social conditions, in education, in morality, this youngest of the Balkan States stands pre-eminent.

The Bulgarian church, like every other branch of the Eastern Church, "has the form of godliness, but not the power thereof". With few exceptions, the ancient Slavic liturgy alone is read in the services. There is no preaching, no Bible-Study and but very little knowledge of the work of the Holy Spirit. No work is done for the children. Simple Bible stories, under the title "The Law of God," are taught regularly in the public schools. But this amounts to little. Often the textbooks are poor. Worse still, many of the teachers are rank infidels or atheists.

The common people do not understand the fundamental doctrines of the Christian religion, and of course do not practice them. Their idea of religion is, that it consists of certain forms and ceremonies to which all are expected to conform. The more strictly and devoutly one performs these ceremonies the more pious he is considered. That is the idea of the common people.

There is very little of family religion among Bulgarians now. This is one reason why the young people take so little interest in church services now, and most of the young students are driven to atheism.

The law in Bulgaria requires all stores without exception to be closed during divine service on Sunday; after service, however, all saloons, bakeries, butcher's shops, coffee houses, etc., are allowed to open, and the consequence is that all coffee houses and saloons after church service on Sundays do the liveliest business.

The people know they are Christians because they have all been baptized in childhood and perform most of the rites and ceremonies prescribed by the church. That as Christians they ought to lead pure and holy lives is a thing that hardly ever occurs to them, or if it does, they get over it by saying that monks and priests are called to lead a life of purity and holiness and not weak laymen daily exposed to the fierce temptations of the world.

But the horizon is not without light. Many hopeful signs are visible. Opposition to our work is everywhere breaking down. People who were formerly antagonistic are now friendly, and we believe that large numbers are convinced in their hearts of the truth which they dare not confess with their lips.

In the Orthodox church a few leaders do realize the need of a general spiritual awakening, and are working toward that end. Recently they have organized various "Orthodox Christian Brotherhoods" for preaching the gospel, and some priests are beginning to read the Bible and to preach in the language of the people.

Though the bulk of the Bulgarians still keep their connection with the old Greek church, they have shown all along a great liking for reading the Bible. Many thousands of copies of the Scriptures have been sold. The reports of our colporteur are very encouraging.

So far the time has been spent mainly in sowing the Word of God and preparing the way for the coming of the Lord.

And now the outlook is most encouraging. "The morning cometh."

Through the mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit in answer to prayer and faithful work, we are expecting a great ingathering, a revival of religion, a mighty tide of grace which shall not only shake the stronghold of sin and the prevailing infidelity in our midst, but through Bulgaria penetrate into the surrounding countries.

The work our Society is doing in Bulgaria is helping to prepare the people for the Great Kingdom of our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ.

Bulgaria needs God-fearing, pious men, men with large hearts, men who will dare to do the right under all circumstances. When through the labors of God's children in Bulgaria all classes are brought under the influence of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, God will raise up great men qualified to perform great deeds for the good of our country and the glory of our God.

To reach this end, however, it is necessary that the Society be reinforced and that it be enabled to engage with success in all spheres of missionary activity.

Our great needs at present are men to do pioneer work by encouraging the reading and the study of the Bible. We greatly need money to pay for the translation of good religious books into Bulgarian. The boys and girls are in grave danger of being corrupted by abundant translations from the French and others languages. We need funds for opening a Bible store in Philippopolis, which is the center of the foreign and home trade. Most of all do we need the funds for more colporteurs, who will go with Bibles all over the country and spread the Word of God.

We have determined to win this land for the Lord Jesus Christ. The times are propitious. Energetic work, constant prayer, and a deep work of grace in the heart of God's children will win.

Brethren, let us move together in this and we will move Heaven.

PAUL L. MISHKOFF.

Responding Readers.

"I received a copy of THE RUSSIAN HARVEST FIELD recently. Since doing so my heart is aching more than ever for those of the household of faith. Of course I feel for others also, but you understand what I feel for those of our family. I do not eat a meal, but what those poor dear wasted frames come up before my eyes."

"I have been reading THE RUSSIAN HARVEST FIELD which came yesterday. Conditions are terrible in Russia. I hope means to save a great number of them will reach there, before it is too late. I trust that a great number of the Lord's people will respond and help. And now let us unite in prayer that so it will be. By saving them physically they will live to hear the glorious Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ."

RELIEF WORK
EVANGELIZATION

RUSSIA EVANGELIZATION SOCIETY

Here is a group of available Evangelists and Gospel Workers in Poland and Volhynia. Two of them were formerly priests in the Greek Catholic Church of Russia. The group was brought together in a most remarkable way. If space permitted, we would like to publish their statement of belief, which contains the fundamental doctrines and compares well with that of Christian bodies in America. These and other zealous Christians are ready to work in their native land under co-operation with the RUSSIA EVANGELIZATION SOCIETY. All they need is our prayers and our support.
